

PPP – A venture for a good planning

General Requirements for the qualification of the public partner

- Architects and town planners with professional competence for urban planning, building construction, landscaping and gardening with jury qualification
- planning and building laws
- realisation of building projects and maintenance of built constructions
- experts with competence especially in preparing, realising and settling construction works and competence in the fields of administration, maintenance, management and commercialisation of property etc.
- engineers with competence in construction engineering and all house maintaining fields
- lawyers with competence in questions of building construction law and law of contract
- finance experts

Increase of planning competence of public partners

Architects not only in the tenders pool of private partners but also site to site to the public partners

Drawing up of an output specification

Avoiding mistakes in public procurement procedures

Reduction of the application effort

Qualitative selection of a suitable tender

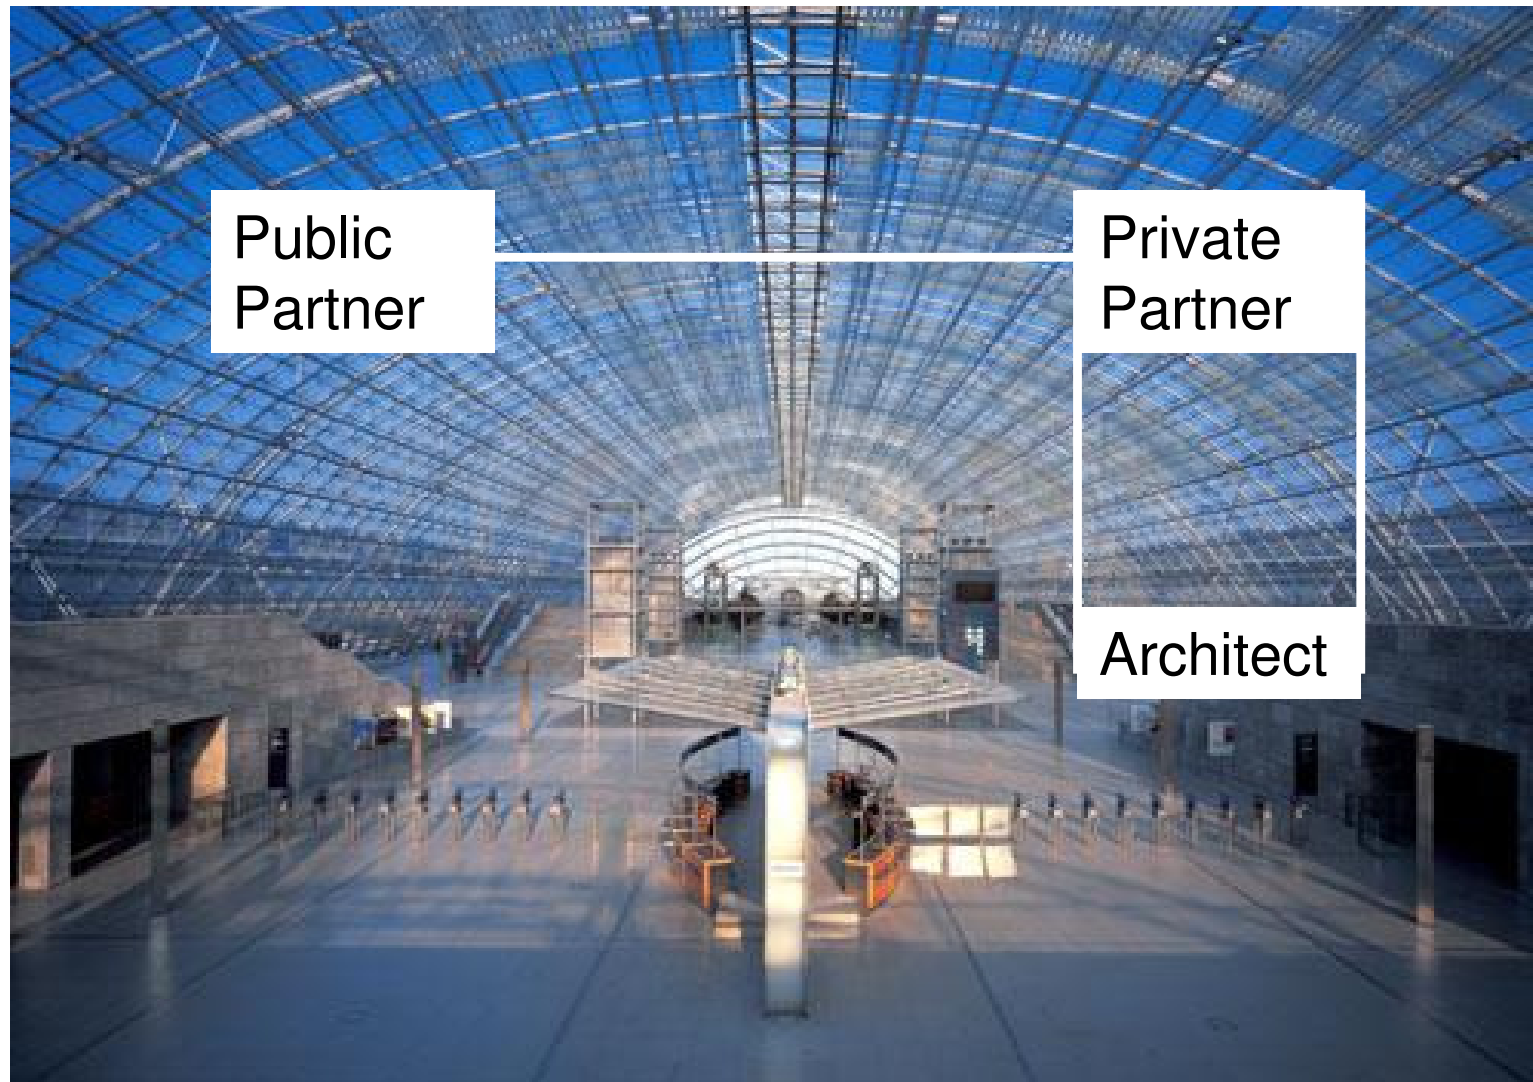

Warranty of trusteeship for the public procurer

Define the role of the Architect

Public
Partner

Private
Partner

Architect

